Share a Population Projection

This is a form to aid sharing a population projection on the State and Local Population Projections Database (applieddemogtoolbox.github.io/projectionsdatabase).

Please complete one form per projections release or vintage. Partial information is okay, and we can resolve questions in follow-up too. I (Eddie Hunsinger) will respond that the form and materials were received, and will provide a ListingID and associated link for reference once it's listed in the database.

Once listed, permissioned users and can also contribute data points from it to the database's associated Google Sheet (tinyurl.com/r5u93msw).

You can also email me (edyhsgr@gmail.com) at any time to remove a listing you've provided, and I will do so as soon as possible. –April 2021
